

A Weekend of Walking amid stunning Atlantic Coastal Scenery,
Crystal Clear Waters, Green Coast

Award Winning Beaches
Surrounded by a Rich
Natural, Built and Cultural Heritage plus there will be Music Nightly!

Weekend Walking Pass €20

For all Travel,
Accommodation, Island,
and Festival Information visit:

www.inishbofin.com
Tel +353 95 45895

FRI 24th: Festival Launch

Talk by Author, Tour Leader and Wildlife Photographer
Anthony McGeehan: 'Birds of the Wild West,
Inishbofin Island, Co. Galway'

SAT 25th: 'Down Chorus Walk' with Anthony McGeehan
Guided early morning bird-spotting walk

Lecture by renowned Archaeologist

Michael Gibbons delivers lecture: 'New Research on Inishbofin and the Western Islands of Connacht'

Guided Archaeological Walk

'Inishbofin, Knock Hill – from the Bronze Age to the Nineteenth Century'

Photography Walk by Inishbofin Photographer

Local photographer and historian Marie Coyne will lead a 'Visual Walk' around the island.

'Inishbofin Northern Sunset'

A guided walk at dusk with Michael Gibbons

SUN 26th: Lecture and Visit to Inishark Island

A lecture on the history and archaeology of Inishark followed by a boat trip and guided tour of the island with local historian Tommy Burke.

Vibrant, Dramatic and Ready to Explore

Inishbofin Island Walking Festival,
Connemara, Co. Galway
24th-26th May 2013

INISHBOFIN ISLAND WALKING FESTIVAL

24TH - 26TH MAY 2013

A Weekend of Walking amid stunning Atlantic Coastal Scenery, Crystal Clear Waters, Green Coast Award Winning Beaches surrounded by a rich natural, built and cultural Heritage plus there will be Music nightly!

FRIDAY 24TH

20.30 - 21.30 Opening Lecture: 'Birds of the Wild West, Inishbofin, Co. Galway' with Author and Photographer, Anthony McGeehan.

SATURDAY 25TH

06.30 - 08.30 'Dawn Chorus Bird Watching Walk' with Anthony McGeehan

11.00 - 12.30 Lecture with Michael Gibbons: 'New Research on Inishbofin and the Western Islands of Connacht

13.30 - 15.30 Walk with Michael Gibbons: 'Inishbofin, Knock Hill - From the Bronze Age to the Nineteenth Century'

16.00 - 17.30 'Visual Walk 'of the Island with local Genealogist and Photographer Marie Coyne. Suitable for all ages - don't forget your camera!

20.00 - 22.00 'Inishbofin Northern Sunset' - A Guided Walk at Dusk with Archaeologist Michael Gibbons

SUNDAY 26TH

10.30 - 11.30 A Talk on the History and Archaeology of Inishark with Local Historian Tommy Burke

12.00 - 15.30 A Guided Trip to and tour of Inishark Island with Tommy Burke
(Weather Permitting. Extra Charge €10 for Boat Fare)

'Weekend Walking Pass' for all walks costs €20

All Walks will start from the Inishbofin Community Centre unless otherwise stated.

Walkers are advised to bring rainproof clothing, strong & suitable footwear, water and a snack.

For all your Travel, Accommodation, Island and Festival Information:

www.inishbofin.com

Tel +353 95 45895

csptourism@inishbofin.com

Inishbofin Island, Co. Galway on Facebook

@VisitInishbofin on Twitter